HOLIDAY SHOPPING TIPS

Just in case you haven't filled your shopping list with presents yet, here are a few tips from Dollars & Sense (a Florida consumers' newsletter) to help you out.

When buying a personal gift, know the person's size and preference, to prevent the agony of exchanging gifts or replacing those that won't work. Each store in the state of Florida sets its own refund policy to deal with returns. A store may give you a cash refund, an exchange of merchandise, a credit for use in the store, or no refund at all!

Beware of small appliances and their warranties. When you purchase a warranty-covered gift, you will find a copy included in the package. Is this product covered by a full warranty or limited warranty? A full warranty means a defective product will be repaired or replaced free. A limited warranty is considerably less effective.

Knowing a store's refund policy and being familiar with the terms of the warranties on the products you buy will help you avoid problems when buying gifts. Do your shopping with reputable merchants or call the Better Business Bureau if you have any doubts. Happy Holiday Shopping!

Are you thinking of a transfer or a promotion, but have doubts about where you'd like to go? Mickey Mouse
Walt Disney World
Dear Mickey:

CONGRATULATIONS!! on your 50th birthday. It is a great pleasure to be a part of the birthday celebration of such a world renown personality. One whose entire being has been for the purpose of bringing joy and laughter into the homes and hearts of the peoples of the world. If I had been in the position to choose a neighbor to share our beautiful Orange County, I hope I would have been foresighted enough to have made you my choice. I am glad to be your friend and neighbor.

I am sure your birthday celebration will be even more successful than your usual fabulous festivities. I wish you continued success and hope you will always be around to lighten the hearts of the world.

Sincerely yours,
Lee Chira

This Thank You is only a small portion of the gratitude I feel towards all the terrific people who assisted me in my emergency flight to Wisconsin last month. Thanks to you all is well . . .

"It Takes People"

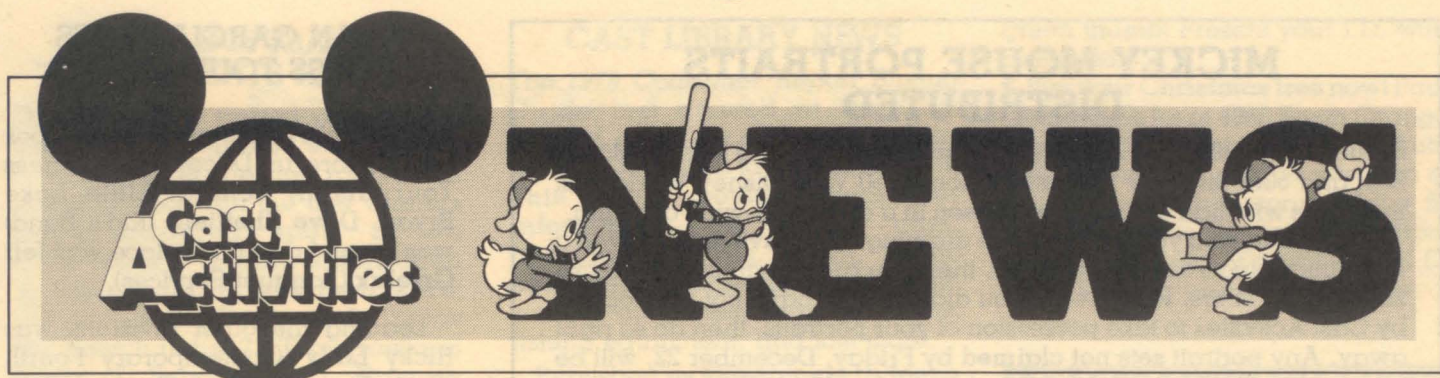

Thanks to the efforts of our Walt Disney World Management Team who spent two of their "free" evenings serving dinner, operating attractions and selling merchandise to the thousands of cast members who spent the evening at our Cast Christmas Parties, our parties were a tremendous success. We should also mention that many of our cast members volunteered to work during the Cast Christmas Parties to help their "rookie" supervisors operate the attractions, food and merchandise locations, and a special "thanks" goes to all of them!

We'd like to share a letter from one of your fellow cast members, Jack Walls from Microphotography: "I would like to take this opportunity to thank Disney for the wonderful Christmas Party they put on for the employees and their guests. As always 'Everything is Beautiful.'

"No matter what road life may lead me to next, I will always remember Disney in the sense that, no matter how much bigger we become, Disney as always has never forgotten how to say 'Thank You' to its employees for a job well done."

Thanks for a job well done cast members! And Happy Holidays!

CAST CHRISTMAS DINNER & DANCE THIS SUNDAY

Cast Activities annual Cast Christmas Dinner & Dance is this Sunday evening, December 17, in the Ballroom of the Americas at the Contemporary Resort.

Priced at $20 per couple for a full buffet dinner and four hours of dancing, they are a holiday present to you priced just right! All advanced sales through Cast Activities close at 4:30 pm Saturday afternoon. No dinner tickets will be available at the door, only dance.

ATTENTION ALL SCUBA DIVERS

Has your Recompression Chamber Club membership card expired? If so, you can renew it by stopping in at Cast Activities between now and January 2, 1979 with a $4 membership fee.

If you are a diver and not familiar with the club, then here are the details. The recompression chamber in Palm Beach, Florida, is the nearest full service 24-hour chamber to the Central Florida area. The chamber is maintained and operated by volunteers, but requires funds to keep up the equipment. This money comes from chamber club members and their $4 dues (if they are a member of a participating dive club, $5 for individual divers).

Membership in the Recompression Chamber Club entitles you to free use of the chamber if you need it. In addition, the Inter City Rescue Squad (who operates it) has a reciprocal agreement with the NOAA Club in Miami who also have a chamber. So, for just $4 you have automatic recompression chamber insurance for one year at two locations in Florida!

Tom Murphy, Karen Morris and Roger Schrank were among the group of Dive Club members who went to Bimini recently. All our Walt Disney World Dive Club members may join the Recompression Chamber Club at a reduced cost . . . why not get some insurance for your next dive and join the club?

SPORTS, CLUBS & SPECIAL EVENTS

ANOTHER SNOW SKI TRIP SET

Last Wednesday morning, Cast Activities began accepting reservations for the January 13 & 14 snow skiing trip to Beech Mountain, North Carolina. And by early afternoon that same day, the trip was sold out!

But don't despair, skiers. Because there are two more trips planned for this winter. Each will cost $100 and will hit the slopes these weekends:

- February 3 & 4, 1979
- February 24 & 25, 1979

So, watch EYES & EARS for details of when each trip will begin accepting reservations. And think snow!

KARATE LESSONS ACCEPTING STUDENTS

Cast Activities is now accepting reservations to attend a new class in Karate, with instruction being provided by Olympic Karate of Orlando.

The class will begin Tuesday, January 9, at 8 pm at the Central Branch of the YMCA on Mills Avenue in Orlando. It will meet twice weekly, on Tuesdays and Thursdays, for ten weeks.

The total cost of the class is $60 for all 20 sessions, a very substantial savings over commercial martial arts lessons. To join, all you need do is make a 50% deposit in Cast Activities, with the balance due midway through the class. The class is limited to 20 students, so all reservations are on a first come, first served basis.

For more information, call Dent in Cast Activities at extension 4254.

However, if you did win and have not yet stopped by Cast Activities to take possession of your portraits, then do so right away. Any portrait sets not claimed by Friday, December 22, will be returned to California and will not be claimable to that winner.

If you have any questions, please call Cast Activities at ext. 4254.

WALT DISNEY SELF-PORTRAIT LITHOGRAPHS PICKED

Earlier this week, 75 names were drawn in Cast Activities for a copy of the Walt Disney Self-portrait limited edition lithograph. All winners will be notified by mail within the next two weeks. The delay is due to holiday mail slow-downs.

Cast Activities has a master list of winners available for inspection, but it must be done in person . . . no telephone calls please.

If you have not received a letter confirming that your name was picked by the first of the new year, then it probably was not. Details of the procedure for getting your lithograph will be included in the letter.

Our 1978 Walt Disney World Ambassador, Vicki Jaramillo, pulled the lucky 75 names for the Walt Disney lithographs.
